Policy Statement
The Board and the Executive of Helping Hand Aged Care are committed to maintaining the privacy of personal information about clients and to upholding the principles of confidentiality by:

/ Ensuring that all information collected from clients is considered as “health information” as defined by the Privacy Act 1988, and is treated in accordance with the terms of that Act and with the National Privacy Principles.

/ Maintaining systems to ensure that “client health information”:
   is collected in an open and fair manner and, where possible, from the individual concerned;
   is only used and disclosed for organisational purposes, with consent being obtained for such use and disclosure;
   is accurate and is kept in a secure manner; and
   is available for access by the individuals from whom it has been collected.

/ Ensuring that all information regarding staff and volunteers is maintained in the strictest confidence and is passed on to third parties only with the signed written consent of the people concerned.

/ Ensuring that information regarding the organisation’s financial, contractual or other business dealing remains confidential.

/ Ensuring where research activities are occurring that clients, carers and staff are protected by appropriate ethics approval.
