Yeltana, Whyalla

Yeltana, whose name originates from an Aboriginal word meaning 'somewhere to rest', has been part of the Whyalla community for several decades.

Yeltana has a beautiful foreshore location on Newton Street, with picturesque views over Spencer Gulf.

This fully accredited home, which was extended in 2016, offers accommodation for up to 59 people and rooms have garden or sea views, either overlooking landscaped gardens with fruit trees, seasonal vegetables and herb gardens, inspired by the local surroundings; or beachfront views over Spencer Gulf.

All rooms are comfortably furnished with: electric beds, built-in wardrobes, lockable storage and fabric curtains. In addition, each room is fitted out with wide doors, a nurse call point and an individually controlled air conditioning system.

Everyone is encouraged to personalise their rooms and make them their own, with items that are special to them. If you choose, you can also arrange to have a personal computer or bar fridge installed in your room.

Yeltana residents enjoy a diverse range of lifestyle programs and activities, including music concerts, slide nights, ladies craft afternoons, bingo and movie days.
